

Promote literacy and change lives.

The online master's in reading education.

The KU School of Education and Human Sciences offers both a reading specialist licensure track and a non-licensure track for the online Master of Science in Education \(M.S.E.\) in curriculum and instruction with an emphasis in reading education. These programs help build an understanding of literacy at all levels, including assessment of literacy development from the beginning stages in pre-kindergarten through adolescence and adulthood. A master's in reading education will help you explore the intersection of diversity and literacy and will teach you to support populations with different reading challenges.

Program Benefits

- Learn from renowned faculty with extensively published research and diverse real-world experience
- Curriculum based on the Standards for Reading Professionals of the International Literacy Association
- Complete your coursework anytime, anywhere, through our innovative online format
- Track your research and share with classmates in the online Reading Room
- No GRE required for admission
- Accredited under NCATE standards through CAEP

Program Structure

- Reading Specialist Licensure Track: 11 courses
- Non-Licensure Track: 10 courses
- Reading Specialist Licensure Track: 33 credit hours
- Non-Licensure Track: 30 credit hours
- 8 weeks per course