

Help students master the English language.

The online licensure endorsement in TESOL.

To serve the growing population of English language learners (ELLs) in U.S. schools today, the University of Kansas School of Education and Human Sciences offers an online licensure endorsement in Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages \(TESOL\). The licensure endorsement-only track in TESOL is best for currently licensed teachers in states where additional licensure endorsement is required for roles that involve the teaching of English language learners. This program will give you graduate-level knowledge about English language learners and how to best serve their needs in the classroom.

Program Benefits

- Learn from renowned faculty with extensively published research and diverse real-world experience
- Practical approaches grounded in pedagogical theory that can be applied directly to your own teaching
- Complete your coursework anytime, anywhere, through our innovative online format
- No GRE required for admission
- Accredited under NCATE standards through CAEP

Program Structure

- 6 courses
- 18 credit hours
- 8 weeks per course
- Complete in as few as 12 months

Admissions Requirements

- Completed online application form
- Professional resume or CV
- Completed bachelor's degree from accredited college or university
- Official transcripts from all colleges or universities attended
- Personal statement that indicates your specific interest in the program and how it relates to your career goals
- Three letters of recommendation from professional or academic references
- Application fee: $30
- IELTS or TOEFL scores (for non-native English-speaking applicants)