

Online Master's in High Incidence Disabilities

Applicants to the online Master of Science in Education \(M.S.E.\) in special education with an emphasis in high incidence disabilities are required to submit the following materials and meet the following requirements before the designated application deadline:

- Completed online application form
- Cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher (on a 4.0 scale)
  - Applicants with an undergraduate GPA below 3.0 should contact a KU admissions outreach advisor for more information
- Professional resume or CV
- Completed bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university
- Official transcripts: Copies of official transcripts are acceptable for admissions purposes

Transcripts from US institutions must include degree conferral and may be sent:

Via mail: Transcripts must be sent directly from your institution, in a sealed envelope, to:

Graduate Admissions
University of Kansas
1502 Iowa St.
Lawrence, KS 66045

Electronically: If your institution offers a secure electronic transcript delivery service (such as Parchment or National Student Clearinghouse), you may have transcripts sent to graduateadm@ku.edu.

- Letter of introduction stating your area of interest and licensure status
- Two letters of recommendation from professional or academic references. Recommendations are collected via the online application system, and references will receive an email link with instructions to complete a letter of recommendation and survey
- Application fee: $65 for U.S. residents, $85 for international applicants
- IELTS or TOEFL scores (for non-native English-speaking applicants)