

Online Master's in Secondary Special Education and Transition

Applicants to the online master's in secondary special education and transition* are required to submit the following materials and meet the following requirements before the designated application deadline:

- Completed online application form
- Cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher (on a 4.0 scale)
 - Applicants with an undergraduate GPA below 3.0 should contact a KU Admissions Advisor for more information
- Professional resume or CV
- Completed bachelor's degree from accredited college or university
- Official transcripts: You must arrange to have an official transcript from each college or university sent to the University of Kansas. Transcripts are considered official only if they arrive in a sealed envelope from the college or university. Transcripts issued directly to the student will be accepted only if the envelope is unopened. Once the envelope seal has been broken by someone other than a university employee, the transcript becomes unofficial. Unofficial transcripts can be scanned and submitted during the application process for initial review.

Official transcripts should be sent to:

Graduate Admissions
University of Kansas
KU Visitor Center
1502 Iowa St.
Lawrence, KS 66045
- Letter of introduction stating your area of interest and licensure status
- Name, email and position for three professional references
- Application fee: $65 for U.S. residents, $85 for international applicants
- Proof of English proficiency (for non-native English-speaking applicants)

*This program is an online Master of Science in Education (M.S.E.) degree in special education with an emphasis in secondary special education and transition.